

PRIVACY POLICY

This website is managed by Design Unlimited

When you visit this website, Design Unlimited may collect personal data about you, both directly (via a request for information to you) and indirectly. Design Unlimited will only use these personal data in accordance with the purposes described in this Privacy Policy and will do its utmost to protect the collected personal data. This Privacy Policy describes the purposes of the data processing by Design Unlimited with regard to this website, the use of cookies and how you can exercise your rights with regard to your personal data.

Purposes of data processing

Design Unlimited does not collect or process data about customers and visitors to this website for the purposes of its business operations, to promote and make available products and services that may be of interest to you and to develop web statistics. The information provided by you will be used to contact you where necessary, for example to inform you about changes in the functionality of the website or to offer you services that you might appreciate (unless you have indicated that you do not wish to receive offers of services).

Cookie policy

Design Unlimited may collect and analyse information related to the use of this website, such as domain name, the number of hits, which pages have been visited, previous/next sites visited and the duration of a user session. This information may be collected via cookies. A cookie is a small text file containing relevant information that our web page server can extract from your browser. Our web page server may only retrieve cookies that relate to the information that has been exchanged between you and Design Unlimited via the Internet. Cookies that do not contain security sensitive information can be stored on your hard disk in such a way that they will be available on your next internet visit. You can allow or prevent the use of cookies by changing the settings of your browser. If you wish to prevent the use of cookies, the information in question will no longer be stored by your browser and will be requested and entered each time you visit the Internet. The settings regarding cookies vary from browser to browser.
